TIPS THAT WILL HELP YOUR ITEMS SELL:

- ✓ Clean your items before bringing them in!
 - This will improve photos and help bring a better price
- ✓ Bring all parts and pieces needed for items to work properly
 - Batteries, cords, etc.
 - We test all testable items at the door and will not take non-working items
- ✓ Provide any information that is pertinent to the sale, or interesting facts about your item that we can use in the description and to advertise

Frequently Asked Questions:

- What is the consignment fee on my items?
 - Our commission scale is as follows and is based on what your individual lots or items sell for:
 - $10-$25 ... 35%
 - $26-$50 ... 30%
 - $51-$500 ... 20%
 - $501 - $1000 ... 15%
 - $1001 - $15000 ...10%
 - Any vehicles or Equipment ... 10%
- Can Go 2 Guys Pick Items Up?
 - Yes. If you need us to pick up items for you, we can set up a consultation to get started, just give us a call!
 - There is a flat 35% commission charge on your items if we pick them up for you.
- Should I lot my items ahead of time?
 - If there are items that you feel should go together on auction, rather than be separated, please bring them together and let us know. However, there is a possibility that we will re-lot items for your benefit, if we feel that it is necessary.
- Can I put a minimum on my items?
 - The only time we put minimums on items are if they are of a $10,000 value or more.
 - We can, however, put a “buy it now” price on certain items, giving a potential buyer the opportunity to buy it outright for a price named by you before it goes to auction.
- When will my items be on the auction?
 - We typically have an auction every single Tuesday, so your items will sell within one or two weeks from when you bring them in.
- When will I receive my check?
 - You will receive your check within 7-10 days after the auction.
 - You will also receive a full summary in your email that you provide on the Friday after the auction with exactly what each of your items sold for and how much your check should be.
